THE OLD PEOPLE'S DINNER.

Yesterday was St. Joseph's day, and according to past usage, the old people under the charge of the Little Sisters of the Poor were treated to a dinner by the many ladies and gentlemen of Washington who are interested in that most deserving of charities.

At 1 o'clock, the hour set for the dinner, about two hundred old men and women seated themselves at tables in separate rooms. In another room the colored people were accommodated.

TO MAKE HIM LOVE HER.

The Girl Tried to Make Her Lover Jealous. John West, a colored boy, aged about 19 years, was confined in the criminal court yesterday by a warrant from the person in snatching a pocketbook from the hands of Miss Harriet B. Crum on Feb. 29, on Ninth street, between N and O streets northwest.

Assistant District Attorney Coyle prosecuted the case and E. M. Heston appeared for the defendant. A rather romantic phase attended the capture of the prisoner, and love for a man resulted in the conviction of the brother of the girl in the case.

On the 20th of last February Miss Crum, a delicate looking young lady, was returning to her home in the northern part of the city about 6:30 in the evening, and when on Ninth street, between N and O, she was approached from behind and kicked or shoved by a man, who, she thought, was the assailant. Her pocketbook was snatched from her hand, and she fled in an agony of distress.
